

Giovanna Crivelli Profile

UniCredit Group awards at least one scholarship or fellowship each year to commemorate a former UniCredit Group employee, the late Giovanna Crivelli, and her dedication to promoting young talent.

Born in Milan on January 16, 1960, Crivelli began her career at Credito Italiano in 1979. In 1990, she moved to the Organizational and Professional Development Department, and in 1996 she became personal assistant to the CEO of the Group, a position she held until her premature passing in 2000.

Giovanna Crivelli was a special individual and a dedicated colleague who represented the highest personal standards of integrity, commitment and hard work. She was a true talent. It is therefore appropriate that the standards for any prize in her honor be set at an extremely high level.

The Crivelli Scholarships and Fellowships are offered to top-ranked candidates in support of advanced training for specialized research in the fields of economics and finance. These awards allow our most talented students to pursue their chosen courses of study.
